Eleven New Zealand short films and teaching resources

Eleven is available as a DVD and packaged teaching resource. The DVD features a number of successful New Zealand short films that cover a wide range of themes and ideas. The resource is photocopiable and includes shots from each short film to guide teachers and students.

Resources for each film are divided into four sections: Previewing: building and using prior knowledge | What's the story: working with film narrative and structure | Close reading: focusing on key production features | Think about it: thinking about themes and ideas

ELEVEN includes the following New Zealand short films:

1. TAMA TU

Director: Taika Waititi
Even at war... boys will be boys.

2. TAUA

Director: Tearepa Kahi
When a boy shows compassion amidst rival Maori tribes at war, one leader falls, another rises.

3. POSSUM

Director: Brad McGann
A dark journey into the psyche of a nine year old boy struggling to understand the unusual circumstances of his family life.

4. COFFEE AND ALLAH

Director: Sima Urale
When a cup of coffee is a gift from Allah that can surpass language and cultural barriers.

5. THE GRAFFITI OF MR TUPAIA

Director: Christopher Dudman
